

TAYLOR A. DUNN

UC Irvine, Department of Philosophy ◊ tadunn@uci.edu

FOCUS

Areas of Specialization

Epistemology, Philosophy of Logic

Areas of Competence

History of Analytic Philosophy, Logic, Philosophy of Language, Metaphysics, Philosophy of Mind

EDUCATION

Ph.D Candidate, Philosophy

Expected 2023

University of California, Irvine – Department of Philosophy

Research: The normativity of logic, logical hinges, constitutivism, epistemic norms

Advisor: Annalisa Coliva

M.A., Philosophy

Awarded May 2018

California State University, Los Angeles

Comprehensive Exams: Epistemology, Philosophy of Language, History of Modern Philosophy

Nominated by faculty to contribute to department student journal Philosophy in Practice:

–“Enabling Libertarian Free Will Through Human Enhancement”, 2017

–“Logical Pluralism and its Collapse Problems”, 2018

Advisors: Mark Balaguer, David Pitt

B.A., Philosophy

Awarded Dec 2015

University of Missouri

Emphasis in Philosophy of Language, Mind, Metaphysics

Minor: History

Advisors: Andrew Melnyk, Marina Folescu

EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistant

Sept 2019 – Present

University of California, Irvine

Courses:

Puzzles and Paradoxes, Fall 2019

Intro to Philosophy, Winter 2020, Spring 2020

Philosophy of Law, Summer 2020

Argument & Research (Instructor), 2020/2021

Conference Co-Planner

Oct 2018 – Feb 2020

Archeology in a Post-Truth World – Interdisciplinary Conference at UC Irvine

Graduate Assistant

Sept 2017 – May 2018

California State University, Los Angeles

Courses:

Critical Thinking and Composition, Fall 2017, Spring 2018

Engaged Philosophy, Spring 2018

AFFILIATIONS

The American Philosophical Association

AWARDS

Regents' Fellowship (October 2018 – June 2019)

WORKS IN PROGRESS

† A Hinge Account of the Normativity of Logic

† A Constitutivist Solution to the Normativity Problem For Logical Pluralism

† Is Logic Normative For Inquiry?

† The Normativity of Consistency and Dialetheic Dilemmas

† Logically Alien Thought in Kant, Frege, and Wittgenstein

† A Reliability Theory of Demonstratives

† Personal use textbook for intro logic course

REFERENCES

Annalisa Coliva Chancellor's Professor / Department Chair – UC Irvine Dept. of Philosophy a.coliva@uci.edu

Jeff Helmreich Associate Professor of Philosophy and Law – UC Irvine Dept. of Philosophy jhelmrei@uci.edu

Mark Balaguer Professor of Philosophy – California State University, Los Angeles
mbalagu@calstatela.edu