

SHORT CV

Name and title: Dr Christopher J. Abel
Nationality: British and Australian (resident in France)
Home address: 42 Av Carnot, 94500 Champigny Sur Marne
France
Contact details: Email: chris.abel7@orange.fr
Website: www.chrisabel.com
Highest degrees: PhD, 2012 (University of Sydney)
AA Dipl, 1968 (Architectural Association, London)

Principal academic posts

8/15-6/17 University of Ulster Belfast, Honorary Visiting Professor
8/08-12/08 University of Nebraska Lincoln; Hyde Chair of Excellence
4/91-2/97 University of Nottingham; Senior Lecturer in Architecture
9/89-4/91 University of Dundee; Senior Lecturer in Architecture
9/88-9/89 Middle East Technical University; Visiting Professor
11/85-8/86 National University of Singapore; Senior Lecturer in Architecture
9/82-6/85 King Saud University; Associate Professor of Architecture
8/81-9/82 Science University of Malaysia; Associate Professor of Architecture
7/79-5/81 Texas Tech University; Associate Professor of Architecture
4/71-6/78 Portsmouth Polytechnic; Lecturer/Senior Lecturer in Architecture

Principal areas of teaching and research

History, theory and criticism of architecture and urban design; vertical architecture; cognitive extension, culture and identity formation

Awards

International Committee of Architectural Critics 2017 Bruno Zevi Book Award for The Extended Self – Architecture, Memes and Minds

Exhibitions

Co-curator with Norman Foster for the 2003 Royal Academy of Arts Summer Exhibition, Sky High: Vertical Architecture

Selected books

Architecture and Identity, Routledge, 2017 (3rd edn.)
The Extended Self, Manchester University Press, 2015
Architecture, Technology and Process, Architectural Press, 2004
Sky High: Vertical Architecture, Royal Academy of Arts, 2003

Other publications

Over one hundred and forty papers and articles on architectural and urban history, theory and criticism including numerous interdisciplinary studies

