

Raúl Ros Morales

Email: r.ros-morales.1@research.gla.ac.uk

LinkedIn: www.linkedin.com/in/raúl-ros-morales-61a77467/

Phone: +447754528341

Personal Profile

I am working on the nature of hallucination as PhD student at The University of Glasgow. I am a reliable, approachable, hard-working and organised person. As philosophy student, I have developed a great understanding of the main theories and problems of philosophy of perception. During my master degree, I completed training in order to carry out an excellent research programme. I am interested in problems concerning perception and consciousness.

Education and Qualifications

2017 – 2020 The University of Glasgow

PhD in Philosophy. Supervisor: Fiona Macpherson.

Thesis: The Nature of Hallucination.

2011 – 2015 University of Murcia

Philosophy degree, Overall mark: 7,96.

Dissertation: The nature of perceptual experience: intentionalism vs disjunctivism.

2014 – 2015 University of Hull (Exchange)

Philosophy degree, Overall mark: 68 (Upper Second Class).

2015 – 2016 University of Hull.

MRes in Philosophy. Overall mark: 71.9 (First class honours).

Dissertation: Phenomenal Consciousness and Cognitive Access.

Skills and Achievements

Scholarships

- College of Arts Excellence Postgraduate Scholarship (2017/2020). The University of Glasgow: Collage of Arts. The scholarship covers maintenance and tuition fees.
- Erasmus scholarship (2014/2015). Sending institution: University of Murcia. Receiving institution: University of Hull.

Awards:

- Award for the best academic record (2014-2015) from University of Murcia.
- Passport to University Teaching Letter of Completion (2015/2016) University of Hull. Introduction to University Teaching for PGR Students.

Presentation and publication

- Presentation of my article "The Screening-off problem" for the PG Seminar at Glasgow University on 11/05/2018.
- Demo-ing Illusion Index (www.illusionsindex.org) for the Annual Learning and Teaching Conference at Glasgow University on 28th and 29th of March 2018. Further details: <https://www.gla.ac.uk/myglasgow/leads/events/annuallearningandteachingconference/>
- Presentation of my thesis "The Nature of Hallucination" for the association Glasgow Skeptics "Three researchers and a flipchart" on 12/02/2018. Twitter: @glasgow_pubHd (Further details: <https://www.evensi.uk/pubhd-researchers-flipchart-admiral-bar/241979856>).
- Poster presentation for the conference Forms of Knowledge at The University of Edinburgh on 7/11/2017. Title: The Nature of Hallucination. (Further details: <http://www.blogs.hss.ed.ac.uk/overlap/poster-project/>)
- Reviewed Work: John R. Searle, Seeing things as they are, New York, Oxford University Press, 2015, pp. 235. Journal: Teorema. (May 2017). (Further details: <https://www.unioviado.es/Teorema/English/Issues/XXXVI2.html>)
- Presentation of my essay "The best way to understand solipsism in the Tractatus" for the association White Rose Philosophy Postgraduate Forum at Leeds University on 14/11/2015. (Further details: <https://www.york.ac.uk/philosophy/research/wrppf/>).

Offers for PhD programmes.

- Unconditional offer for a PhD programme in Philosophy at The University of Glasgow with Fiona Macpherson as supervisor (October 2017).
- Unconditional offer for a PhD programme in Philosophy at The University of Durham with Clare Mac Cumhaill as supervisor (October 2017).
- Unconditional offer for a PhD programme in Philosophy at King's College of London with David Papineau as supervisor (October 2017).
- Unconditional offer for a PhD programme in Philosophy at Wollongong University with Daniel Hutto as supervisor (February 2017).
- Conditional offer for a PhD programme in Philosophy at The University of York with Greg Currie as supervisor (October 2017).

- Conditional offer for a PhD programme in Philosophy at Warwick University with Matthew Nudds as supervisor (October 2017).

Interviews for PhD programmes.

- Short-list interview for a PhD scholarship in Philosophy for a joint programme: Research Training Group “Situated Cognition” (28th February 2017). Information available: <https://www.ruhr-uni-bochum.de/philosophy/Situated%20Cognition/>

- Short-list interview for a Graduate Teaching Scholarships for PhD Students at York University (1st July 2016). Information available: <https://www.york.ac.uk/philosophy/postgraduates/funding/>

- Short-list selection process for the Durham Leverhulme Doctoral Training Programme in Visual Culture Scholarship (20th June 2016). Information available: <https://www.dur.ac.uk/cvac/postgraduatestudy/visualscholarships/apply/>

- Short-list interview for a PhD scholarship in Philosophy at York University. Role: editor assistant for the journal Mind & Language. (25th April 2016). Information available: <https://www.york.ac.uk/philosophy/postgraduates/funding/>

Representative:

- Course representative for the MRes in Philosophy at Hull University (2015-2016).
- Postgraduate departmental representative at University of Hull (2015-2016).
- Representative of Hull University for the White Rose Philosophy Postgraduate Forum.
- Representative for the Department of Modern Languages as student language ambassador.

Languages:

Spanish native.

Fluent in English; both in writing and speaking.

English Certificate: IELTS B2.

Work experience

School Ambassador Program:

- Teacher assistant of Spanish from 25th November 2015 to 9th March 2016 at St Mary’s Sport College in Hull (England).
- A workday at Winterton Language Academy on 11th March. Presentation to encourage students to study languages.

Volunteering:

Volunteer for the company Sue Ryder in Cottingham (June 2015 – September 2015).

Interests

- Main areas of interest: philosophy of perception, cognitive sciences and consciousness.
- Working together with specialists, such as scientists, in areas regarding issues of perception.
- Conferences and teaching.

Societies:

Founder and president of Chess Society at University of Hull (course: 2015/2016).

Additional courses :

- Developing videogames (400h) – University of Murcia. (2017 Mar - Jun).
- The Complete Digital Marketing Course 2017 – Udemy (online).
- Online Marketing Fundamentals – Lynda (online).
- Google Analytics Essential Training – Lynda (online).
- Introduction to Content Marketing – Lynda (online).
- Foundations of Programming – Lynda (online).
- Photoshop CS6 One-on-One fundamentals – Lynda (online).
- WordPress Essential Training – Lynda (online).
- Good Brain, bad brain basics (Birmingham) – Coursera (online).
- Good brain, bad brain. Parkinson's disease (Birmingham) – Coursera (online).
- Visual Perception and the Brain (Duke University) – Coursera (online).