

Alessandro Fiorello
2975 Albion Road North, Unit 202, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada.
Postal Code K1V 8S3
(289) 682-0302
afior008@uottawa.ca

Education

Since 2019     Doctor of Philosophy in Philosophy, University of Ottawa, Ottawa, Ontario
2017- 2018     Masters of Arts in Philosophy, Wilfrid Laurier University, Waterloo, Ontario.
MA Major Research Paper: “Free Will, Values, and Narrative Selfhood”
2013- 2017     Honours Bachelors of Arts in Law and Society and Philosophy Wilfrid Laurier
University, Waterloo, Ontario.

Research Areas of Specialization

Free will, Narrative Theories of the Self, Ethics

Areas of Competence

Theories of Personal Identity

Theories of Law

Theories of Justice

Philosophy of Religion

University Teaching Experience

Teaching Assistant

“PP111 Knowledge and Reality,” first year lecture course, Wilfrid Laurier University, Waterloo, Ontario.

“PP110 Values and Society,” first year lecture course, Wilfrid Laurier University, Waterloo, Ontario.

Lectures

“What is Justice? John Rawls and Robert Nozick” PP110 Values and Society, Wilfrid Laurier University, Waterloo, Ontario.

Fellowships and Awards

2017 Laurier Graduate Scholarship, Wilfrid Laurier University.

2017 Laurier Fellowship, Wilfrid Laurier University.

Publications

2019 “Free Will, Values and Narrative Selfhood” Philosophia. First Online, March 7th. DOI: <https://doi.org/10.1007/s11406-019-00065-9>

Conference Presentations

2018 “Free Will, Values and Narrative Selfhood” Wilfrid Laurier University MA Conference, Wilfrid Laurier University.

2018 “Free Will, Values and Narrative Selfhood” Commentary by Jody Tomchishen. Annual Graduate Conference in Philosophy of Mind, Language, and Cognitive Science, University of Western Ontario.

2018 “Free Will, Narrative and Death: A Good Time to Die” De/Composing Death Annual Graduate Student Conference, Dalhousie University.

2018 “Value Empiricism, Narrative Selfhood and Libertarianism” Public Issues and Public Reason: A Conference on Applied Ethics and Critical Social Sciences, Carleton University.