*** #PRINCESS #LEIA #LUCAS; I grew up in private laboratories with family who were government leaders, such as scientist, Richard M. Lucas, Stanford University/Hospital, known for cancer-killing MRI technology. Richard adopted me to save me from family with difficult histories, stuck in broken systems. I was known by all as a Jewish American Princess, Hebrew name, Leia, so Richard adopted me with this name. I worked for years with another family member, FBI Chief & lawyer, Ted L. Gunderson.

*I was traumatized, as are 1 in 4 people, so didn't remember all of who I am or my history until I processed the trauma. Then, my memory returned fully. After this, I had to leave an abusive, 20-yr marriage from an X-husband who provided wrong and out-of-date info to the local court, hid money and assets, then said all of my evidence was wrong instead, so that court wouldn't accept it. This is a common tactic against victims who get stuck in the justice system based on stories alone. Courts won't even check public records, which would resolve many cases.

***But, to the millions of you out there who've helped me, THANK YOU! "Together we are one. The Force is YOU.®" <https://princessleialucas.webnode.com/>.

***The latest in "shared" ownership, or licensing of digital content, whether original or collected and re-purposed, is now ready for sale, immediately, (including pass through sales). Content can be acquired through all input / exput channels, and done without all the usual filings, wait times or costs. For example, said content may come from, and/or be sold through: IoT wearables, mobile devices, satellite, from events, webinars, educational classes, websites, clouds. And, the license may include original content from recordings, paintings, images, drawings, videos, publications and more. * Just purchase a license number verified through our website, and display the emblem in image format, (or sound for podcasts). Now license owners can charge for any content usage, including as found or traced through all distribution channels, whether it was purchased in advance, or not. And, promotion may be included for multiple audiences, such as ours, through search engines and more.

Jan 2010 - Present (10 years 5 months +)

***IFNBT® is working on collaborations to combine global information about the power of Brain Transmissions Technologies®, such as with I.A. integrations, from a Social-Neuroscience perspective. As such, we also offer coursework for, Certified Social Neuroscience Practitioners.® Our goals include consolidating the resources of Combined Intelligence Association®. Such technologies may be able to harness the ~80% of the brain's true processing power, possibly experienced though the subconscious, with frequencies traveling between people. These technologies may well support the healing work of medical and mental illnesses. Such illness are often caused by trauma, which may break down neuron pathways, thinking processes, and the feedback loop to the body.

****Historically, natural brain transmissions may only have been understood in certain separate environments, employed for such purposes as "protect and defend". Our goal is take such technology and information public, in order to promote healing, including for long-term illnesses. This might be done by "repairing", replacing, or going around brain circuitry that is not functioning at optimum levels. Such work can be done naturally, and by emulations. When brain stimulation is done correctly, the level of positive results could escalate, dramatically.

***It's possible that when human brains achieve a level of complex frequency bonding, this could generate strong feelings, culminating in a new level of activity and motivation from: shared intelligence, (Combined Intelligence Association®) protection, and cooperation. If we can promote such changes, the elevated impulses may improve response ratios to a new level. Then, resulting new and potential brain "circuitry" could allow us to collect and analyze added types of feedback in complex patterns. Such elevated responses may lead to new inventions for mankind.

Princess Leia Lucas® Foundations, PLLF®

2010 - Present (10 years 5 months +)

This Parent Foundation, owned by Trusts, and a type of Holding Company, administrative arm, was started in my name, until I was able to take over. ***PLL Foundations are working on the ability to offer advanced brain technologies, including technological, educational and service resources, also administrative, financial, and legal advocacy services, along with the volunteers / people - who care about putting all this together, for the TOTAL support of trauma recovery.

* Learn about: research, leading edge supports, combined methodologies, historical validation, databases; community mentoring and support, multi-disciplinary outreach; and the rehabilitation that re-combines thinking processes, body, emotions and behaviors. Find the reality that makes life worth living - your way.

-----Do you want to: promote ideas, want to buy services, subscribe, learn more, offer services, info, or barter, volunteer, or share stories of inspiration? WE NEED YOU! Please contact: PrincessLeiaLucas at Comcast dot net, or call 650-349 and 8384; 750 Alma Lane, #8231, Foster City, CA 94404. And THANK YOU for caring.

* Recovery and education are a lifelong process, for all of us.

**To truly know yourself, to be fully known by others, * to dare to use the hero inside you - a little more - each day, * is to know the strongest life force of all."

FOSTER® Foundation Offering Survivors of Trauma Education & Recovery®

2015 - Present (5 years 5 months +)

This FOSTER® organization was also started in 2010. Now, we're focused on re-educating the world at large, the supporters of trauma recovery, and the trauma survivors themselves. The goal is to trust being in control of our own recovery processes, safety, relationships, motivations, reactions, responses, and our lives. Just think about how complicated this can be for "regular" people, let alone anyone who's had to face trauma, and/or life and death situations, too often, and/or too young. Here at FOSTER®, we are dedicated to providing survivors with the myriad of operational supports they will require for this kind of processing, growth, and development. The list can sometimes feel endless, and timeless, yes, and yet, as long as we're getting what we need at the time, we all get through it! Yes, recovery is a lifelong journey, as is life itself. And, the journey can be fun, educational, and rewarding! Please contact us to volunteer, for help, to tell YOUR story, for a list of our services, for pricing information, anything else you want, or, just to say hello!

Life Force Recovery®, Brand: The Right Force®

2015 - Present (5 years 5 months +)

The Right Force® Brain Initiative; LLLP Partnership, to Stop Covid Now

*** I grew up in private labs of gov & Stanford Univ. MRI tech, (with Richard M. Lucas). We practiced specialized procedures to stimulate the brain into healing people from trauma & illness, including activation of the brain's limbic system for immunity. Trauma survivors and veterans, in general, are damaged & reduced by severe life and/or medical events, trauma and more. Our processes worked safely on many, but, we didn't have permission to go public. Now, with COVID, we do. Medical doctors, & therapists help people a great deal, and THANK YOU! Our processes speed up and finish the job.

***If you're a survivor, there's up to a 90% chance you won't know or remember all of it. Even if you do, you still won't grasp that it was trauma, or what effects it's had on your entire life. However, since you're alive, this means you're a hero. Here's why:

****In order to survive the threats of trauma, you saved yourself, and, - you most likely risked yourself trying to save someone else, including an abuser. Often, it's all three. However, even after the events are past, up to ~75% of survivors may resort to suicide, addictions, self harming, or, we isolate ourselves due to fear, pain and shock. This makes it easier for abusers to criminalize us. However, with the right kind of supports, we can dramatically reduce the years and work needed for a return to health, while avoiding the risks of the process. And, when we manage to bond with people, and laugh at times, this saves us. *I recovered from trauma and memory issues myself using these techniques, with people I was bonded to. It works.

****What can you do? Find the hero in you! Reaching out to others reconnects us to the world, and ourselves, creating a human brain-chain. Then, we get back our core selves and our empowerment. That's Life Force Recovery.
