

Luigi Tesio was born in Italy in 1952. He is MD, specialist and Full Professor of Physical and Rehabilitation Medicine in Milan. He was trained in neurophysiology, biomechanics, and bio-engineering. LT is Director of the Department of Neurorehabilitation Sciences at the Istituto Auxologico Italiano. His research fields are 1)neuromechanical correlations in balance and gait ;2) neuromechanical correlations in voluntary movement;3) statistics and outcome measurement in disability studies; 4) epistemology of medicine