

KATHERINE BRICHACEK

Department of Philosophy, Loyola University Chicago
☎ (630)551-6113 ✉ kbrichacek@luc.edu 🌐 brichacek.weebly.com

AOS Social Political Philosophy, Philosophy of Race, Hannah Arendt

AOC History of Philosophy

Education Loyola University Chicago

Ph.D in Philosophy; 2015-present

Dissertation:

Dissertation Advisor: Jacqueline Scott

University of Chicago, Chicago, IL

MA in Humanities—emphasis in Philosophy; 2011

Thesis Title: The Importance of Rahel Varnhagen: Life of a Jewish Woman for Arendt's Political Philosophy

DePaul University, Chicago, IL

BA in English, minors in Art History and Philosophy; 2010, magna cum laude

Conference Presentations 36th Annual International Social Philosophy Conference, July 2019
Conference Paper: "The (Questionable) Utility of Hannah Arendt"

Purdue Women in Philosophy's Inclusive Philosophies Conference,
March 2019

Conference Paper: "The (Questionable) Utility of Hannah Arendt: A
White Privilege Analysis of Political Action"

Midwest Race Theory Workshop, January 2019

Paper workshopped: "The (Questionable) Utility of Hannah Arendt: A
White Privilege Analysis of Political Action"

35th Annual International Social Philosophy Conference, July 2018

Conference Paper: "Arendt and Honneth on the Rise of Trump: An Analysis of the Social Pathologies that Led to his Election"

Great Lakes Philosophy Conference, April 2018

Conference Paper: "Ethics in the Anthropocene: The Implications of Considering Climate Change in light of the "Killing v. Letting die" Distinction"

Words Matter: Politics, Rhetoric, and Social Justice, March 2017
Indiana University Bloomington Interdisciplinary Graduate Conference

Conference Paper: "The Epistemic Resistance and Democratic Importance of #SayHerName"

Teaching Experience

Instructor of Record

Harold Washington College, 14 classes

- Social Political Philosophy
- Ethics
- Introduction to Philosophy
- Logic
- Philosophy of Religion
- Introduction to Arts and Ideas
- Humanities I, 200-level

Loyola University Chicago, 4 classes

- Social Political Philosophy
- Ethics

Teaching Assistant

Loyola University Chicago

- Social Political Philosophy
- Ethics
- Introduction to Philosophy and Persons

Ashoka University, Sonipat, Haryana, India

Writing Tutor and Critical Thinking Teaching Assistant
Summer 2014-Spring 2015

DePaul University Center for Writing-based Learning

Writing Center Consultant, 2008-2009

Pedagogy Coursework

Loyola University

Teaching Effectiveness Seminar, Philosophy Department (Spring 2016)

Teaching Effectiveness Seminar, Graduate School (2017-2018)

University of Chicago

Teaching in the Community College, Winter 2011

DePaul University

Writing Center Theory and Pedagogy, Fall 2008

Graduate Coursework

Loyola University Chicago

- 19th Century Philosophy: Kierkegaard (Paul Moser)
- Topics in Ethics: International Human Rights (Joy Gordon)
- Phenomenology/Existentialism: Sartre, Beauvoir, and Arendt (David Schweickart)
- Philosophy of Race (Jacqueline Scott)
- Hegel (Ardis Collins)
- Medieval Philosophy (Peter Hartman)
- Hermeneutics and Critical Theory (David Ingram)
- Plato (Jason Rheins)
- Kant (Victoria Wike)
- Philosophy of Law (Heidi Malm)
- German Idealism (Andrew Cutrofello)
- Marx (David Schweickart)

University of Chicago

- Foundations of Interpretive Theory (Variety of Professors)
- Philosophy and Literature (Ted Cohen)
- Contemporary Analytic Philosophy (Benjamin Callard)
- Teaching in the Community College (Jason Evans)
- The Modern Regime in Art (Robert Pippin and David Wellbery)
- Religion and the Political Order, I (Jean Bethke Elshtain)
- Religion and the Political Order, II (Jean Bethke Elshtain)
- Hannah Arendt: The Human Condition (Patchen Markell)

Professional Service

- Association of Graduate Students in Philosophy (AGSP)
- President (2017-2018)
 - Vice President (2016-2017)

References

Jacqueline Scott
Associate Professor, Dissertation Advisor
Loyola University Chicago
jscott6@luc.edu

Hanne Jacobs
Associate Professor, Dissertation Committee Member
Loyola University Chicago
hjacobs@luc.edu

David Richardson
Associate Professor of Philosophy
Harold Washington College, Chicago
drichardson2@ccc.edu