

I have a Master degree in philosophy and a Ph.D. I was researcher fellow, adjunct professor lecturer, and (at present) honorary fellow ("cultore della materia") at the University of Florence. I am member of the Executive of the Italian Philosophical Society (Florentine Division); I am member of the Executive Committee of the magazine "Atque". My research has mainly involved in the Philosophy of mind, particularly about the mind-body problem. I was scientific supervisor of the magazine "Humana@mente"; member of the Italian Society of Analytical Philosophy; member of the Italian Teachers and Scholars Committee of the Philosophy of Mind.
