

Publication List

Update July 2023

Kumie Hattori

Postdoctoral researcher
Graduate School of Global Environmental Studies
Kyoto University
Phone & fax: +81-(0)75-753-2967
Email: hattori.kumie.7e@kyoto-u.ac.jp
Lab: <http://www.envpolicy.ges.kyoto-u.ac.jp/>

EMPLOYMENT

Dec 2021 - present Postdoctoral researcher, Graduate School of Global Environmental Studies, Kyoto University, Kyoto

DEGREE

Ph.D. in Global Environmental Studies, Kyoto University (Nov 2021)

AREAS OF SPECIALIZATION

Legal philosophy, political philosophy, philosophy of public policy

—WORKS IN ENGLISH—

A. Publication

1. Kumie Hattori (2023) “Third Party Duty of Justice: Combatting Grave Human Rights Violations”, Archiv für Rechts und Sozialphilosophie 109, vol.4. (referred) Forthcoming.
2. Kumie Hattori (2023), Climate Loss and Damage, Mortimer Sellers and Stephan Kirste (eds), Encyclopedia of the Philosophy of Law and Social Philosophy, Springer Netherlands. (referred) Forthcoming.
3. Kumie Hattori (2021) “Responsibilities for Climate Damage within Borders: Reconciling Liability with Shared Responsibility”, Philosophies, 6, no. 3: 65. pp.1-15. (referred)
4. Kumie Hattori (2019) “A Particularistic Dimension of the Rule of Law,” Archiv für Rechts und Sozialphilosophie, Beiheft 161, pp. 217-229. (referred)

B. Conference Presentation

1. Kumie Hattori, “The Third Party's Duty of Justice: Combatting Grave Human Rights Violations,” IVR Young Prize Lecture, 30th World Congress on the Philosophy of Law and Social Philosophy (IVR-2022), Dimitrie Cantemir Christian University, Bucharest, July 2022 (invited)

2. Kumie Hattori, “The Third Pillar of Climate Policy: Rectifying Loss and Damage,” Kyoto University International ONLINE Symposium 2021 on Education and Research in Global Environmental Studies in Asia, online, November 2021 (poster presentation)
3. Kumie Hattori, “Limitations of the Human Rights Approach to Climate Loss and Damage”, video presentation made at Climate Law and Public Policy Conference, University of Cambridge, UK, Online, 2021.10 (refereed)
4. Kumie Hattori, “Is Intergenerational Retributive Justice Possible?”, presentation made at the IVR Japan International Workshop (IVRJW 2020), Online, 2020.11 (refereed)
5. Kumie Hattori, “Legal Positivism and Human Dignity”, presentation made at the 29th World Congress on the Philosophy of Law and Social Philosophy (IVR-2019), University of Lucerne, Lucerne, 2019.7 (refereed)
6. Kumie Hattori, “Razian Approach to Human Rights”, presentation made at the 11th East Asian Conference on Philosophy of Law, University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, 2018.12
7. Kumie Hattori, “A Reflexive Dimension of the Rule of Law”, presentation made at the 1st IVR Japan International Conference (IVRJ 2018), Doshisha University, Kyoto, 2018.7 (refereed)

C. Award

1. 2022 The Young Scholar Prize in the International Association for Philosophy of Law and Social Philosophy (IVR) (Title of the paper: “Third Party’s Duty of Justice: Combatting Grave Human Rights Violations”)
2. 2021 Best Online Video Presentation Medalist at Climate Law and Public Policy Conference, University of Cambridge, UK, Online (Title of the presentation: “Limitations of the Human Rights Approach to Climate Loss and Damage”)

—SELECTED JAPANESE WORKS—

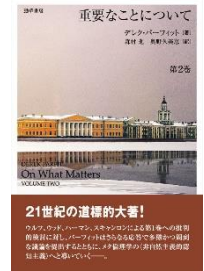

D. Publication

1. Makoto Usami, Kumie Hattori (2021), Empathy to Future Generations: Hume, Smith and Beyond, in Tatsuyoshi Saijo et al.(ed.), Future Design and Philosophy: Dialog beyond Generations, Keiso Shobo: Tokyo, pp.199-225.
2. Kumie Hattori (2020), ‘Detached Legal Statement: Legal Positivism and Post-Linguistic Turn, Annual of Legal Philosophy (Hōtetsugaku Nenpo) 2019, pp.185-198. (referred)

E. Translation

1. Allen Wood, Humanity as End itself, in Derek Parfit, On What Matters, part two (Oxford University Press), from Keisō Shobō: Tokyo, 2022, pp.57-80.
2. Barbara Herman, A Mismatch of Method, in Derek Parfit, On What Matters, part two (Oxford University Press), from Keisō Shobō: Tokyo, 2022, pp.81-114.
3. Joseph Raz, Value, Respect, and Attachment (Cambridge University Press) Translation with Susumu Morimura from Chikuma Shobō: Tokyo, 2022
4. Andrei Marmor, Philosophy of Law (Princeton University Press) from Keisō Shobō: Tokyo, Edited by Susumu Morimura (Upcoming)

F. Other Works

1. Commentary for a book of Joseph Raz, Value, Respect, and Attachment, ‘How to Answer “What is it like something is value? (Kachi ga arutoha donoyounakotoka)”’, Chikuma Shobō: Tokyo, 2022, pp.246-279.
2. Short essay: ‘A dialog between legal philosopher and a fox’, Jinbundō, online, 2022 ’https://book.asahi.com/jinbun/article/14620335

G. Honors

1. 2020 Scholarship, Nishihara Cultural Foundation (-2021)
2. 2020 Selected as a student who is eligible to complete the doctoral program in one year in Global Environmental Studies, Kyoto university
3. 2019 Funded by Suenobu Foundation, Project on Comparative Legal Studies Research and Education, for International conference
4. 2018 Funded by Suenobu Foundation, Project on Comparative Legal Studies Research and Education, for International conference
5. 2011 Selected as a paid legal trainee at Alan. K. Leong, S. C.’s Chambers in Hong Kong

—WORKS IN PROGRESS—

A research project on artificial intelligence funded by the Japan Sciences and Technology Agency (2021-) <https://www.jst.go.jp/ristex/rinca/projects/jpmjrx21j1.html>

A book on contemporary legal positivism