Professional skills:

- + Managing research groups in philosophy;
- + Editing and proofreading academic articles;
- + Administration of the editorial board of an academic journal;
- + Conducting international Summer Schools in Philosophy and organizing international philosophical cooperation;
- + Interdisciplinary research projects combining philosophy and linguistics, philosophy and cognitive sciences, philosophy and religious studies.
- + Historical and philosophical research into the history of Early Modern and contemporary philosophy;
- + Research in ontology, epistemology, and ethics;
- + Writing scholarly papers;
- + Teaching courses in the history of philosophy: prephilosophy, Oriental philosophy, Greek philosophy, modern philosophy, 19th century philosophy, contemporary philosophy.
- + Development of courses on selected issues of Early modern philosophy, 19th century American philosophy, analytic philosophy;
- + Supervision of term papers of undergraduate and graduate students.
- + Translation of philosophical literature from English into Russian.
- + Popularization of philosophy: lectures for wide audience, social media..

Major achievements in work:

- I have developed several historical reconstructions: of the main stages in the interaction between analytic philosophy and American pragmatism; of the main stages in the development of the personal identity debate from the late seventeenth century to the present day; of several topics from C.S. Peirce's philosophy;
- I have organized a research seminar that works on some fundamental philosophical problems: artificial intelligence, linguistic meaning, a priori knowledge, proofs of the existence of God, personal identity, the ontology of truth, moral responsibility, the ontology of causality, and the foundations of morality;
- I have developed a pragmatic argument for free will, an animalistic argument in the field of personal ontology, a rationalistic argument in the field of moral responsibility, a modal argument in the field of the problem of universality in morality, and a realistic argumentation in the field of truth ontology.
