

Research Interests

Primary: Metaphysics, Philosophy of Language

Secondary: Philosophy of Mathematics, Philosophy of Logic, Philosophy of Science

Education

2026–Present: PhD in Philosophy, University of Manchester

Dissertation Title: Reductive Fundamentality, Abstractionism, and Metaphysics

Supervisors: Prof. Fraser Macbride, Dr. David Liggins

Full scholarship from the School of Social Sciences (see § Awards and Scholarships below)

2024–2026: MA in Logic and Philosophy of Science, MCMP, LMU Munich

Thesis Title: Two Challenges for Quantifier Variance

Supervisors: Prof. Hannes Leitgeb, Prof. Alyssa Ney

Thesis Grade: 1.12 (Distinction)

Final Grade: 1.17 (Distinction)

Feb.–Sep. 2024: Visiting Fellow, University of Bologna

2022–2024: MSc in Philosophy of Science, London School of Economics (LSE)

Thesis Title: Why the Causal Theory of Reference Fails to Immunise Metaphysical Realism Against Putnam's Model-Theoretic Arguments

Thesis Supervisor: Dr. Wesley Wrigley

Thesis Grade/Mark: Distinction/74 (best mark of the cohort)

Final Class/Mark: Double Distinction/76 (best mark of the cohort)

2018–2021: BSc in International Economics, Bocconi University

Talks (Refereed and Invited)

How Quantifier Variance is Challenged by Hyperintensionality

10. Sep. 2026: 2nd Meeting of the Italian Association for Analytic Metaphysics and Mid-Term Conference of the Italian Society for Analytic Philosophy. Ca' Foscari University.
9. Aug. 2026: 12th European Congress of Analytic Philosophy by the European Society for Analytic Philosophy. Complutense University of Madrid.
Recipient of the ESAP Early-Career Scholar Honourable Mention in Metaphysics (see § Awards and Scholarships below).

How Reductive Fundamentality Refutes Mathematical Platonism

8. Sep. 2026: 5th International Conference of the Italian Network for the Philosophy of Mathematics. University of Bologna.
7. May 2026: Workshop on Platonism in Metaphysics and the Philosophy of Mathematics by the Italian Society for Analytic Philosophy. Roma Tre University.

Metaphysical Consequence with Truthmakers (joint work with Daniel Wimmer)

6. Sep. 2026: Logic of Metaphysics Conference. University of Potsdam.
5. Dec. 2025: 4th Conference of the European Network for the Philosophy of Logic. University of Padova.
4. Sep. 2025: Modalities and Quantification in Reasoning Workshop. Central European University.
3. Aug. 2025: 16th Conference of the Italian Society for Analytic Philosophy. University of Turin.
Recipient of the SIFA Young Scholar Prize (see § Awards and Scholarships below).

Holistic Logical Realism

2. Apr. 2025: Dual Workshop in Logic and Metaphysics: Themes from Graham Priest. University of Eastern Piedmont.

Are Heuristics a Case of Overfitting?

1. Sep. 2024: Book Symposium: Overfitting and Heuristics in Philosophy by Timothy Williamson. University of Bologna.

Awards and Scholarships

Oct. 2026: University of Manchester School of Social Sciences PhD Scholarship

The full scholarship covers tuition fees at International student rates and a stipend at UKRI rates, for a total net value of ca. £170k over 3.5 years.

Aug. 2026: ESAP Early-Career Scholar Honourable Mention in Metaphysics

The honourable mention was awarded with a rate  $< 2\%$  to early-career scholars (max. one year from PhD) based on their submission to the 12th European Congress of Analytic Philosophy by the European Society for Analytic Philosophy (ESAP).

Aug. 2026: MCMP/LMU Munich Travel Grant

The €800 travel grant is awarded by the MCMP to master's students to support their participation in prestigious conferences at which their research has been accepted for presentation.

Aug. 2025: SIFA Young Scholar Prize (awarded jointly with Daniel Wimmer)

The €250 prize was awarded with a rate of  $\sim 5\%$  to young scholars (max. 5 years from PhD) based on their submission to the 16th Conference of the Italian Society for Analytic Philosophy (SIFA).

Jun. 2025: Michael Dummett Centenary Conference Bursary

The £150 bursary was awarded on a competitive basis by the Analysis Trust to postgraduate students based outside Oxford to support participation in the Michael Dummett Centenary Conference taking place at the University of Oxford.

Academic Work Experience

Jul. 2025: Research Assistant, LSE

Following the Michael Dummett Centenary Conference, at which my former supervisor Dr. Wesley Wrigley read the paper "Indefinite Extensibility and Intensionality", I assisted him with preparing the paper for publication.

May–Jul. 2025: Student Assistant and Course Tutor, LMU Munich

I created and tutored of the 12-session/18-hour reading course Abstractionism: Mathematics and Metametaphysics. The course explores the philosophical, and specifically metaontological, implications of the mathematical technique of abstractionism, and features five external guests: Dr. Bahram Assadian (University of Leeds), Prof. Matti Eklund (Uppsala University), Prof. Øystein Linnebo (University of Oslo), Prof. Agustín Rayo (MIT), and Dr. Luca Zanetti (IUSS Pavia). Duties included delivering short lectures on the assigned readings and moderating the ensuing discussions.

Mar.–May 2024: Reading Group Coordinator, University of Bologna

I coordinated the 5-session/10-hour reading group of Prof. Timothy Williamson's book Overfitting and Heuristics in Philosophy (2024). Duties included delivering short lectures on the assigned readings and moderating the ensuing discussions.

Apr. 2024–Present: Private Lecturer/Tutor

I have more than 300 hours of teaching experience with high school students, whom I have lectured and tutored in Philosophy, Mathematics, Natural Sciences, History, and Italian Literature. I have also tutored in preparation for the SAT test.

Conferences and Talks Organisation

May–Jul. 2025: Abstractionism, LMU Munich

As part of the reading course on Abstractionism (see § Teaching Experience above), I invited and organised the talks of five guests: Dr. Bahram Assadian (University of Leeds), Prof. Matti Eklund (Uppsala University), Prof. Øystein Linnebo (University of Oslo), Prof. Agustín Rayo (MIT), and Dr. Luca Zanetti (IUSS Pavia).

Mar. 2023: Heuristics and Paradoxes in Philosophy, LSE

I invited Timothy Williamson (Wykeham Professor in Logic at the University of Oxford) to LSE and organised his talk, as well as the ensuing reception and dinner. The talk had a record attendance of 50+ people, including several faculty members.

Work Experience

Oct. 2025–Present: Head of UK/EU University Coaching, IB45s

Duties include developing the service offering for UK/EU university application coaching, as well as supporting prospective students throughout the application process.

Jul. 2021–Sep. 2022: Corporate Senior Analyst, Citibank

Member of the Tech, Media, and Telecom team based in London, UK. Duties included building financial models and performing qualitative analyses to assess the creditworthiness of multinationals across Europe, Middle East, and Africa.

Sep. 2018–Oct. 2020: Head of Business Development, JEME Bocconi Studenti

Duties included expanding the revenue pipeline of the firm. JEME Bocconi Studenti is a university-affiliated, student-led strategy consulting firm based in Milan, Italy.
