

HELENE ELISABETH ZOELLNER

Email: h.zoellner@campus.lmu.de

Personal Information

Date of Birth: 22nd of October 2001

Raised both German- and English-speaking

Education

High School: Graduated from Gymnasium in the summer of 2020
Abitur-grade 1.8

University: Began studying Philosophy at the LMU Munich as a major in the winter semester 20/21 with a minor in Political Sciences
Switched to a minor in Psychology in the winter semester of 21/22

Collected Experiences

High School: Wrote a 12-page paper about the autobiographical book and movie of Holocaust-survivor Sally Perel

Jobs: Completed two single-week internships at a pharmacy in 9th grade in Erding at a matrimonial law firm in White Plains, New York, as a research-assistant in 11th grade Worked as a cashier in a hardware store for two years acquired a strong sense for keeping up with details and customer-service, even with challenging and stressful, quickly timed tasks

University: Successfully completed all compulsory lectures for Philosophy with an average grade of 2,86
(1.0 in Formal Logic and 2.0 in Ethics)

Collected Experiences

University: Written and turned in seminars and papers for Philosophy

- 1.7 in Philosophy of Artificial Intelligence
(Gebharter, German)
- 2.3 in Nietzsche's 'Beyond Good and Evil'
(Zambito, German)
- 1.7 in Panpsychism (McGrath, English)
- 2.3 in Philosophy of Artificial Intelligence (Ojea, English)

Unfinished and current seminars

- The Minds Place in Nature: Physicalism and Panpsychism*
- Plato's Theaitetos*
- Chinese Philosophy*
- Identity: Personal, Cultural, Political*
- Philosophy of Technology*
- Topics in Contemporary AI Ethics*
- Understanding Other Minds: Recent Issues*
- Minds & Machines*

Successfully completed the first two semesters
of Political Sciences

As well as the main first four semesters of Psychology