

Kym's work mainly concerns a rationally unquestionable foundation for values - moral, social, political, legal, epistemic, educational and all others. Kym is retired, previously having qualified as a psychologist. been a school teacher, and studied, taught/researched philosophy at the University of Adelaide and Flinders University in South Australia. Kym has 4 children and 13 grandchildren.