

Edward Armitage
PhD Candidate
The University of Sheffield
earmitage2@sheffield.ac.uk

Research Interests

Philosophy of Mind, Emotion, Rationality, Epistemology, Philosophy of Action

---

Education

The University of Sheffield (2020-in progress)

PhD Philosophy - Thesis title: 'The Scope of Rationality In Worry'

Supervisor(s): Professor Paul Faulkner, Dr. Yonatan Shemmer

The University of Sheffield (2017-2018)

MA Philosophy - Pass with Distinction

Manchester Metropolitan University (2014-2017)

BA Philosophy - 1st Class Honours

---

Awards and Grants

Royal Institute of Philosophy Jacobsen Studentship (2022-23)

MMU Academic Excellence Award (2015) (2016)

---

Teaching/Supervisory Experience

- Graduate Teaching Assistant, 'Self and Society' undergraduate module, The University of Sheffield (2022-23)
  - Graduate Teaching Assistant, 'Mind, Brain and Personal Identity' undergraduate module, The University of Sheffield (2021-22)
  - Graduate Teaching Assistant, 'Reason and Argument' undergraduate module, The University of Sheffield (2021-22)
-

Conferences Papers and Presentations

'The Normative Standard of 'Worrying Too Much' ' – Fitting and Rational Happiness Conference, The University of Southampton, September 2022

'The Place of the Imagination In Emotionally Recalcitrant Worry' – Science and Philosophy of the Imagination Conference, The University of Bristol, September 2021

---

Professional Service

Conference Organiser, Understanding Value XI, (2022-23)

PGR Philosophy Student Representative, (2021-2022)

Peer Reviewer, Durham Critique MMXXI, (2021)

Marker, University of Sheffield Philosophy Student Essay Competition, (2021)