

AUBRIAL HARRINGTON

224 N Fraser Dr. E.
Mesa, AZ 85203
(928)301-5271
amharr42@asu.edu

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Immigration and Borders, Latina Feminism
Political, Social, and Economic Philosophy
Freedom of Speech and Political Polarization
Economic Development

EDUCATION

Arizona State University
Ph.D. in Philosophy Current
Fourth-year

Northern Arizona University
B.A. in Politics, Philosophy, and Law
Minors in Economics and Classical Studies 2018
Cum Laude, Honors

University of Essex
Study Abroad in International Relations and Philosophy
2017

Yavapai Community College
Associate of Arts in General Studies
Certificate in Creative Writing 2015
Honors

TEACHING ASSISTANT AND PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Arizona State University
Graduate Teaching Assistant
Teaching assistant for Philosophy 101, Bioethics, Introduction to Ethics,
Epistemology, Modern Philosophy, and Business Ethics courses Current

Arizona State University
Instructor
Instructor of Survey of Great Ideas in Politics and Ethics (CEL100), 2021-Current Environmental Ethics
Instructor for ASU High School Summer Camp “The Dialectic” 2022-Current

Northern Arizona University
Teaching Assistant 2017
Teaching assistant for Modern Philosophy with Dr. George Rudebusch

CONFERENCES AND RESEARCH

“Seeing the U.S.-Mexico Border/Borderlands as Multidimensional” Graduate College Research Symposium, Arizona State University	31 October 2022
“Immigration Under Duress.” Climate Crisis, Displacement, and Migration Conference, Georgetown University Department of Philosophy, Online	16 April 2021
“Silent Narratives” Stories, Histories, Memories Conference, The Liberal Herald, Bratislava International School of Liberal Arts, Online,	20-21 November 2020
“Another Answer to the Question: What is Critique?” Summer Critical Theory Workshop, Critical Theory Workshop, Online	17 July 2020
Summer Critical Theory Workshop The Critical Theory Workshop / Atelier de Théorie Critique Online	Summer 2020
“Discourse, Politics and Praxis” Independent research with Dr. Julie Piering Northern Arizona University Philosophy Department	Fall 2016- Spring 2018
“Environmental Education” Undergraduate Honors Conference Northern Arizona University	Spring 2016

AWARDS

Adam Smith Fellowship	2023-2024
Distinguished Student for the ASU College of Liberal Arts and Sciences	Fall 2022
Outstanding Graduate for the NAU Philosophy Department	Fall 2017

SERVICE

Member of the APA's Committee on Hispanics/Latinxs	Current
Chair of the ASU Minorities and Philosophy (MAP) Chapter	Current
Member of the ASU SHPRS Anti-Racist Committee	Current
Secretary of ASU Graduate Philosophical Society	2021-2023