

Academic Positions

Johns Hopkins University Postdoctoral Associate in Philosophy, Politics, and Economics School of Government and Policy	2026-2028
Georgetown University Postdoctoral Associate in the Philosophy of Group Agency John Templeton Foundation Grant 63320	2024-2026
London School of Economics Visiting Researcher & Guest Teacher Department of Philosophy, Logic, and Scientific Method School of Public Policy Open Society Foundation Grant: Social Cohesion and Deliberative Decision-Making	2025-2025

Education

New York University Stern School of Business Ph.D. in Economics	2018-2024
New York University M.A. in Politics	2016-2018
Yale University M.A. in International and Development Economics	2014-2015
University of Oxford M.St. in Philosophy of Physics	2012-2013
The University of Western Ontario B.Sc. Double Major in Physics and Philosophy	2008-2012

Publications

- Narayanan, S., Panjwani, R., Sen, S., and Ho, C., Improving Human Performance with Value-Aware Interventions: A Case Study in Chess. Reinforcement Learning Journal (2026)
- Panjwani, R. & Lehtinen, A., Eliminating Idealizations with Soundness Analysis. Erkenntnis (2026)
- Panjwani, R., A model of common law adjudication. Theory and Decision (2025)
- Panjwani, R., A note on the semantics of linear regression. Synthese (2025)

Works in Progress

The Equilibrium Structure of Corporate Agents (Under Review)

Reflective Equilibrium and Preference Change

Ecological and Constructivist AI Alignment

When Reason-Giving Signals Trustworthiness

Industry Positions

Consulting Researcher, Microsoft Research (New York City Lab) 2024-2025

AI Resident, Google X (the Moonshot Factory) 2022-2023

Research Fellow, Barings (Emerging Markets Sovereign Debt and Currencies Group) 2020-2020

Guest Teacher at London School of Economics

Philosophy for Public Policy (PP406 Master's Level Seminar). Winter 2025.

Excellence in Education Award, School of Public Policy

Adjunct Lecturer at Georgetown University

Game Theory for Biologists (BIOL-4507-01). Fall 2025.

Teaching Assistant at New York University

Econometrics I (ECON-UB 251). Professor Sebastiano Manzan. Fall 2023.

Microeconomics with Calculus (ECON-UB 1). Professor Simon Bowmaker. Summer 2022.

American Constitution (POL-UA 330). Professor Peter Rajsingh. Spring 2018.

Politics of Administrative Law (POL-UA 354). Professor Christine Harrington. Fall 2017.

Graduate Advisory

Dian Yu, MSc in Philosophy and Public Policy, LSE, 2025 (Dissertation Supervisor)

Thesis: From Trusting Experts to Trusting Expert Advice: A conditional approach for value-based decision-making

Thomas Bedert, MSc in Philosophy and Public Policy, LSE, 2025 (Dissertation Supervisor)

Thesis: How Bubble Democracy Undermines Posner and Vermeule's Case for Executive Concentration

Willa Thompson, MA, NYU Gallatin School, 2019 (Dissertation Committee)

Thesis: Future War: Considering the Ethical, Operational and Political Implications of Autonomous Weapons

Patent Applications

Large Language Model Interface for Supply Chain Networks (Singh et al, 2024)

- Available online at <https://patents.justia.com/patent/20240289733>

Presentations

Workshop: From Biology to Economics and Back (University of Kansas, November 5, 2025)

Title: A Model of Group Agency

University of Maryland College Park, Department of Philosophy (October 7, 2025)

Title: A Model of Common Law Adjudication

Cohesive Capitalism Programme General Meeting (London School of Economics, March 17, 2025)

Title: Reflective Equilibrium and Preference Change

Centre for Philosophy of Natural and Social Sciences (London School of Economics, May 8, 2024)

Title: A Model of Common Law Adjudication

Munich Center for Mathematical Philosophy (LMU Munich, February 16, 2024)

Title: A Realist Interpretation of Linear Regression

Princeton University Department of Psychology (Lombrozo Lab, February 13, 2024)

Title: A Model of Common Law Adjudication

15th Biennial Conference of the International Network for Economic Method (Arizona State University, November 12-14, 2021)

Title: The Logical Structure of Economic Models

Colloquium on Market Institutions and Economic Processes (New York University, April 12, 2021)

Title: Toy Models in Large Worlds: The Realism in Abstract Economic Reasoning

13th Biennial Conference of the International Network for Economic Method (University of Cape Town, November 19-22, 2015)

Title: The GJK Theorems and their Implications for Structural Modeling

29th Annual Measurement Across the Sciences Conference (UC Boulder, November 1-3, 2013).

Title: Quantum Measurements from Entanglement to Decoherence